		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supported the JSW for development and he agrees to hand over his land.
17	Smt. Monik Kullu	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strongly opposed the company. They will not handover their land and Government cannot forcefully acquire it. Questioned why police has allowed such large gatherings during Covid-19 ?
18	Md. Rafique, Vill.-Khatkurbahal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> JSW should demarcate the lease boundary and clearly mention the amount of compensation etc. Now-a-days government is taking steps for deployment irrespective of location of mines. If public will be displaced, that development will be for whom ? Issue of displacement will be there.
19	Sri Nicolas Kullu, Vill.-Kulenbahal	Farmers are not agreed to give their land to the company. Once they will lose their land, they will not get it again.
20	Sri Pradeep Kerketta, Vill.-Magarkundu	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Whether District Administration of Company will take guarantee about the job, promise here ? Company will not give employment under its pay roll rather they will be employed as contract worker, which has no value. They are opposing the company and they will not give their land.
21	Md. Masud, Vill.-Khatkhrbahal	Supports JSW as they have constructed road and Aganwadi etc.
22	Smt. Bipati Ekka, Vill.-Kutra	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Opposes to the company and stated that they will not give their land to the company. Jal, Jungle and Jammen belong to them and they will not handover it. Gram Sabha is the main body not the Vidhan Sabha.
23	Sri Asim Tete, Vill.-Keratali	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If all the tribal will be displaced than money will have no value. Few are supporting today as because they were influenced by company by taking money. Who will take
